

INTERNSHIP

In Marketing

Starting Date: As early as possible (for 6 months)

YOU are successful in your studies? You would like to experience an entrepreneurial way of work set on highest standards? You appreciate an adequate salary? Then be pro-active and send your application to Philip Morris Austria GmbH in Vienna.

YOUR Tasks:

- You have the opportunity to work closely together with Management and support the team in the decision-taking process.
- You actively support in a variety of projects
- You independently set up reporting, analyses and presentations
- You support in the implementation of workshops
- You contribute to cross-functional projects

YOUR Profile:

- Advanced stage of business studies with focus on Marketing or Sales
- Profound MS-Office skills (Office, Excel and Power Point)
- Fluent in English, Fluent or good skills in German are a plus but not a must.
- Thorough and precise way of working and high analytical/numerical skills
- Problem-solving-competency, team player and flexible

With your charisma and your sense of humor you are able to enrich every team. You go through the world with an open mind, are curious, apprehensive, find creative solutions and are keen to reach outstanding targets. Your fuel is diversity, internationality and shared success, because being first means being the best. Interested?

Please send your full Application documents (in English) including Curriculum Vitae, Letter of Motivation, Graduation Certificate, Certificates of your University successes as well as potentially employer reference letters to marketing.pmat@pmi.com.

The intended salary for this position is € 1000.- gross.

We are the leading international tobacco company with products sold in approximately 180 countries and more than 87,000 employees hailing from all corners of the globe. Together, we have built some of the most successful and enduring brands in the world (seven of the world-wide TOP-15 brands, including the Nr. 1 of the world). Further information please find under PMI.com