

Project management certification at a special price for pupils, students and graduates

- the leading proof of competence in project management
- recognized worldwide
- by Austria's largest project management association
- at a highly discounted course rate*

THE career advantage when starting your career, for only € 286,00 instead of € 544,50 (incl. 10% VAT).

Projekt Management Austria (pma) is the largest Austrian project management association, counting more than 1,100 members. As active member of the globally operating International Project Management Association (IPMA), pma is very well connected on an international level. IPMA is a federation of more than 65 Member Associations and represents more than 250,000 certified project managers.

For more information on pma/IPMA certifications please visit www.pma.at or contact us at zertifizierung@pma.at.

*Valid only for pma/IPMA Level D certifications at on-site events at the respective educational institute for pupils with confirmation of attendance at school, students with confirmation of enrolment and graduates with confirmation of completion of their studies up to a maximum of one year after graduation. All prices in Euro incl. 10% VAT, valid until further notice.